State of Emergency In Southern Rhodesia Brings About Search

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia (AP)—A steady stream of native politicians was rushed into confinement behind barbed wire today as the British rulers of Southern Rhodesia pushed a roundup of African nationalist leaders.

Despite the proclamation of a state of emergency in Southern Rhodesia and the banning of the African National party, both that territory and neighboring Nyasaland and Northern Rhodesia were reported quiet.

The detention camp hurriedly set up at Bulawayo, 230 miles southwest of Salisbury, was rapidly filling. The government pressed a hunt for other leaders of Rhodesia's leading African nationalist organization, blamed for riots last week in Nyasaland.

Pamphlets in local dialects were being distributed, telling Africans the meaning of the state of emergency.

6,000 On Strike
At the big Kariba hydroelectric project, where 6,000 African workers went on strike for higher pay Wednesday, 4,500 were reported back at work. The company raised the pay.

Reports that African nationalists continued to control some outlying airstrips in Nyasaland brought a request for a group of paratroop veterans to recapture the strips. The Africans had blocked the strips.

The previous disturbances and the threat of more trouble brought a 12-fold increase in riot insurance on homes in Nyasaland.

In Salisbury, life went on much as usual. No troops were seen in the streets—and not even many policemen.

But some Africans warned that the arrests of between 250 and 500 African National party leaders in Southern Rhodesia were bound to have a bad effect on the two million blacks in this territory dominated by 176,000 whites.

One of those seized was Daniel

Dirksen Blasts Capitol Reports

Senator Says Talks Affect Negotiations

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) underlined the potential gravity of the Berlin crisis today by pleading for less talk on Capitol Hill while President Eisenhower weighs "the hour-to-hour developments."

Dirksen, the Senate's Republican leader and chief administration spokesman, cautioned in an interview against headline-making speeches or any hasty action that might affect critical negotiations.

Renewed tension over the Berlin situation exploded in the Senate Thursday with Democratic demands for a stepped-up defense program and for alerting the people to any eventuality—including the possibility of a shooting war.

Adding to the apprehension were the uncompromising tone of recent speeches by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and the apparent lack of any favorable results in Khrushchev's Moscow talks this week with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. The talks ended Thursday with British reports that neither side was giving an inch.

Further Strain
A further possible strain on U.S.-Soviet relations developed Thursday when a U.S. Navy boarding party made a personal check of a Soviet trawler about 120 miles northeast of St. Johns, Newfoundland. The boarding party was trying to learn what caused breaks in five transatlantic cables in that area.

But the threat of serious trouble was eased by the Navy's report that no indication had been found aboard the boat of any intentions other than fishing. The captain of the vessel, the Novorossisk, was

Three Boys Injured In Highway Mishap

Three persons were injured in an accident investigated by the State Highway Patrol on Palmyra Rd., about a mile west of Rt. 45 near Ellsworth at 4:45 p.m. Thursday.

An auto operated by John A. Kinkade, 47, of Lake Milton, went left of center, forcing a car driven by James A. Davitt, 17, of North Jackson off the road and into a utility pole, patrolmen said.

Davitt's brother Thomas, 15, a passenger in the car, suffered a fractured shoulder and is reported in fair condition in Youngstown South Side Hospital.

Davitt and a younger brother, Ricky, 5, were treated for minor bruises and lacerations and released.

No one was arrested as a result of the accident. However, Kinkade was cited for failure to transfer his auto plates.

Trawler Investigated, Found All Right

U. S. Navy Boards Red Fishing Boat

WASHINGTON (AP)—A U.S. Navy team took the unusual step of boarding a Soviet trawler on the high seas Thursday, but found nothing to link the vessel with recent breaks in transatlantic cables.

"No indications of intentions other than fishing," was the finding.

The quick negative report, issued by the Navy here a few hours after the boarding was announced, lessened the potential impact of the incident on already touchy U. S.-Soviet relations.

There was no immediate indication how Moscow might react. Nations jealous of their sovereignty often resent the boarding of their ships by men of another nation.

The Soviet vessel is the trawler Novorossisk, with a crew of 54 men and women. The Navy reported the captain was friendly and cooperative.

Under Agreement
The United States acted under an international agreement which the Defense Department said "authorizes investigations by naval ships of official documents of other ships suspected of damaging and interfering with cables under the high seas." Both the United States and the U.S.S.R. are signers of the agreement.

Five transatlantic cables have been damaged since last Saturday in the area off Newfoundland. Fishing vessels of many nations operate in that area and accidental cable damage sometimes occurs in normal deep sea fishing operations.

But the Pentagon said that aerial reconnaissance by American planes "confirmed extended operations of Novorossisk in the area of the cable breaks at the time the breaks occurred."

Under orders from the commander in chief of the Atlantic Fleet, Adm. Jerauld Wright, five men from the antisubmarine radar picket ship Roy O. Hale climbed aboard the Novorossisk at noon Thursday.

The trawler was about 120 miles off St. Johns, Newfoundland, in international waters. Wright ordered the boarding party to make the check under a provision of an 1888 treaty to protect cables. All though it was the czarist government of Russia which originally joined in the treaty, officials here said the Soviet government adhered to it in 1926.

In an initial report, Wright said that the skipper of the Hale, Lt. Cdr. E. J. Korte, and his four men found that the Novorossisk was equipped for deep sea fishing and that all the ship's documents were in order.

LISBON — A verdict of not guilty was returned Thursday afternoon by a Common Pleas Court jury in the three-day trial of Jack Shields, 23, of Wellsville Rd. 1, charged with raping Miss Catherine McKee, 36, of 124 W. Shields took the stand in his behalf Thursday and denied the charge. He testified that he took his nephews to a drive-in theater that night and was at home in bed when the attack was supposed to have occurred.

The jury deliberated about two hours before returning the verdict. Judge Joel H. Sharp presided.

Soviets Blamed For Failure of Macmillan Talks

No 'Concessions' Were Made During Moscow Conference

LONDON (AP)—British newspapers on both sides of the political fence united today in blaming Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev because prime Minister Harold Macmillan had obtained no concessions from the Soviet in his Moscow visit.

Even newspapers of the Labor opposition conceded Macmillan had done his best.

Macmillan himself had promised only to return with information. He had warned he was going on a reconnaissance mission, "to try to break the ice and get some feeling of the general situation."

British spokesmen in Moscow admitted Thursday, after their chief flew to Kiev for the sight-seeing portion of his trip, that the "feeling" Macmillan got was that both the Soviets and the West so far were standing firm on the related issues of divided Germany and West Berlin.

Britons generally had hoped for more. As a result, Macmillan's trip was widely termed a failure.

The papers agreed that Khrushchev's speech Tuesday, pouring cold water on the Western proposals for a foreign ministers' conference on Germany, had wrecked the British-Soviet meeting.

"It was Khrushchev's rough, rude speech — breaking confidences, abusing all and sundry, and belying the fair words spoken to Mr. Macmillan's face — which ended hopes raised by his visit to the Soviet Union," commented the conservative Daily Mail.

The final insult came with Khrushchev's toothache — a "diplomatic toothache" many called it — which prevented him from accompanying Macmillan to the Ukrainian capital of Kiev.

"This looks very like a calculated rebuff to Mr. Macmillan," the Daily Mail said.

The headlines reflected Britain's letdown.

"Khrushchev wrecks talks" — The Laborite Daily Herald.
"Moscow mission negative" — Conservative Daily Telegraph.

"Unless there is a diplomatic miracle between now and Tuesday, the final communiqué will consist of empty words and platitudes," said the right-wing Daily Sketch.

Election Board to Cut Staffs For Primaries

"Economy" forces of four judges and clerks, rather than the usual six, will be used in 23 precincts at the May 5 primary elections, resulting in a saving of over $700 in payrolls, the Columbiana County Election Board decided at a meeting Thursday night.

In addition to Lisbon and East

Palestine, where voting machines will be used on trial, the reduced staffs will be used in three other areas where only operating levies will be voted upon, the board decided. Cutting the staffs from six to four means a saving of $32 a precinct — a total of $736.

The "economy" staffs will be used in three precincts of Center Township and two polling places in Elkrun Township, which will be voting only on operating levies proposed by the Lisbon Exempted Village School District and in the four precincts of Leetonia, which will act on a 4-mill operating levy.

Leetonia bypassed the primary under the Ohio "no contest" law. The two townships would not have primaries under any circumstances, as their officials are elected in November on nonpartisan ballots.

The board decided earlier to use only four-member staffs in the eight East Palestine precincts and six Lisbon polling places where the voting machines will be tried both in May and at the November general election. Last night's act.

The boy, one of eight children in the family of Baker Luther Bell, either jumped or fell from a bedroom window of the family's apartment in a housing project in Manhattan.

He had been sent to the bedroom as punishment for having taken 25 cents without permission, to buy potato chips. A few moments later his 12-year-old sister Edith screamed: "Jimmy went out the window."

Police, noting that the boy has poor eyesight, listed the plunge as an accident.

Woman, Three Children Drop From Window

Firemen Aid Others From Blazing House; Loss Totals $10,000

Eight persons were taken to hospitals as a result of a fire which caused $10,000 damage to a two-family, two-story frame dwelling at 855 W. State St. Thursday night.

Among the injured were three children who had been dropped to safety from a second story window by a woman resident who then leaped to the ground.

In fairly good condition at the Central Clinic this morning are: Mrs. Ralph Lake, 21, who suffered smoke inhalation and shock; and Ralph Lake, 24, lacerations of the wrist and foot, smoke inhalation and shock.

Danny Exline, 10, and Lenny Lake, 3, were treated at the Central Clinic for smoke inhalation and shock and released.

Mrs. Alberta Exline, 43, Linda Lake, 2, Debra Lake, 1, and Rickey Lake, aged three months, were treated for smoke inhalation and shock at City Hospital and released.

Firemen received the fire call at 12:04 a.m. and arrived at the scene in time to assist Mr. and Mrs. Lake, their son, Lenny, and Danny Exline escape from the house down ladders from a second story window.

Onlookers told firemen there were still four persons in the flaming house, a woman and three children. After a search of the burning house, it was discovered that Mrs. Exline had dropped three of the Lake children to safety and then jumped from a second story window. They had been taken to City Hospital.

Fire Chief Clarence W. Wright said the cause of the fire, which started in the living room, was undetermined.

Mrs. Exline told firemen she heard an explosion in the house

Los Angeles Eyed As Convention Site

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic National Committee gathered today to make a final choice for the party's 1960 national convention city.

Los Angeles, recommended by a site committee, was favored to win over 11th hour challenges from Philadelphia and Chicago.

Six cities were in the original competition. On Jan. 18, an eight-member committee headed by Camille F. Gravel Jr. of Louisiana agreed on Los Angeles, whose bid included $350,000 cash plus use of a new 17,000-seat sports arena.

Other matters likely to come before the committee include plans for a fund-raising series of dinners May 8 in honor of former President Harry S. Truman's 75th birthday; a proposal to make national committee members automatic members of their state delegations; and a resolution authorizing a convention arrangements committee.

Saturday night the committee stages its $100-a-plate national victory dinner at which it expects about 2,000 guests. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn, both Texans, head a list of 14 speakers.

Gas Tax Lone Hope For Improved Roads

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration officials told Congress today work on the 41,000-mile super-highway system would be cut back severely unless the gasoline tax is boosted or an alternative money source is found.

Democrats and Republicans on the Senate Public Roads subcommittee both said that there is little chance that Congress will approve the 1½-cent-a-gallon boost in the present federal gas tax recommended by President Eisenhower.

They urged John J. Allen Jr., undersecretary of commerce for transportation, to suggest alternative sources for needed money.

Allen said it would be inappropriate for him to do so when Eisenhower had not formally submitted the gas tax proposal to Congress.

Allen said that under present law not a penny of the 2½ billion dollars scheduled to be divided among the states for the super-highways this summer could be allocated.

Allen also testified that only 500 million of the $2,200,000,000 scheduled to be apportioned next year could be parceled out.

Bertram D. Tallamy, federal highway administrator, said these reductions would "seriously disrupt" construction of the network now scheduled to be finished in 1972.

The reason for the cutbacks is the pay-as-you-go amendment put in the original 1956 law by Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.).

Congress last year suspended the pay-as-you-go provision for one year.

CHILDREN OF THE BIBLE

by Patrick and Garrison

ABISHAG

"So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag, a Shunammite . . ."

—1 Kings 1:3

A strange-sounding name to our ears—Abishag. But she was a young virgin of great beauty; in fact, an early version of our beauty contest winners. For she was selected from many girls of her age as the fairest damsel in the land.

King David's emissaries brought her back to the palace in hopes the sight of her would rekindle the old fires of love and passion that had once burned in the shepherd king.

Abishag spent her early childhood in the town of Shunem, not far from Mt. Tabor, the celebrated mountain of Galilee. No doubt it was the most memorable sight of her early years; for it stands in isolated grandeur in the middle of a large plain.

It is still regarded as a holy place, and was believed by some early writers to be the scene of Christ's Transfiguration.

In Abishag's day, the mountain and the plain around it were already a famous battleground; it was here that "Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with its chariots and its multitudes" had fought.

The Bible does not tell us exactly what effect Abishag had on David, although it says that she "cherished the king, and ministered to him."

But, although the old king did not take her as one of his wives in a literal sense, she was regarded as an official part of the royal household.

It was for this reason that, after David's death, when young Adonijah petitioned Saul for Abishag as his wife, he was charged with treason. According to the law, it was a serious matter for a subject to take something belonging to the Crown—even a beautiful young girl who deserved marriage and happiness.

Death was the penalty for Adonijah's request—probably because Bathsheba feared that Adonijah might still get the throne from her son, Solomon.

Abishag was an innocent, but legal, means of bringing about Adonijah's death.

National Neurosis

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — "Nobody loves a fat man." So says an American proverb. But Santa Claus still is mighty popular.

The truth is not that nobody loves a fat man. The truth is that most people secretly envy the fat man.

To most of the world the fat man is still the symbol of wealth, plenty and security. In this country he has become a symbol of nonconformity and independence—a man with the courage to be different.

As a doctor observed recently, the campaign against fat in America is assuming the proportions of "a national neurosis." Show me a man who jeers at an overweight person and I'll show you a man who is discontented because being thin hasn't made him rich, famous or happy.

It just goes to show that a man whose only ambition is to become thin as a rail is likely to end up woodenheaded, too.

There are certain advantages in this civilization in having a well-rounded stomach, known in some admiring circles as "a corporation."

First and foremost, girls in the office may laugh at your paunch, but—bless the little dears!—they do love to reach out and pat it.

Anything else you buy on the installment plan—a house, a car, a refrigerator—can be taken from you if you don't meet the payments regularly. But there is no mortgage on a big tummy. It is yours alone—all yours—to have and to hold. You can take it with you, even unto the grave.

Skinny men who nap in their office swivel chairs wake up weary from having their arms dangle down like an ape's. But the fat man finds his stomach is a comfortable arm rest.

A fat man can't be crowded. If somebody sits next to him in a bus seat, he merely takes a deep breath—and the other fellow falls off on the floor.

This world is full of people who stick their face into your face and try to peddle you something. The fat man is not at their mercy. He merely leans back, thrusts out his belly bumper—and pushes the fast talker out of hearing.

Bankers will lend more money on less collateral to a man with a fire around his waist. He looks like a bank vault to them—big and safe.

The fat man is more romantic—this may surprise the ladies!—and is the most attentive of lovers. As the old Scottish saying goes, "When the belly is full the mind is amongst the maids."

Not long ago in this column we mentioned the Magazine-for-Friendship plan which is a way for individuals to do some foreign relations work by sending old magazines to schools and libraries overseas. Mrs. Charlene Yocum of near Washingtonville sent to Occidental College, where the plan was originated, for information, and her Lend-A-Hand Club members adopted it as a project. They sent for 300 Magazine-for-Friends hip labels and each member will write a personal letter to enclose in the magazines.

Two Children Found Underfed in Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two children suffering from severe malnutrition and dehydration were reported in poor condition today at St. Vincent Charity Hospital.

"We have been desperate for money, but the kids have been eating regularly," Mrs. William Schram the children's mother, mother, told County Child Welfare Division representatives.

Admitted to the hospital Thursday were Lynette Schram, 3, and 28-months-old Terry. Doctors examined and then released two other Schram children, Bruce, 5, and Kim, 9 months.

Mrs. Schram said her husband had been out of work for a month, but found a job two days ago.

She said she was unaware that Lynette and Terry were sick.

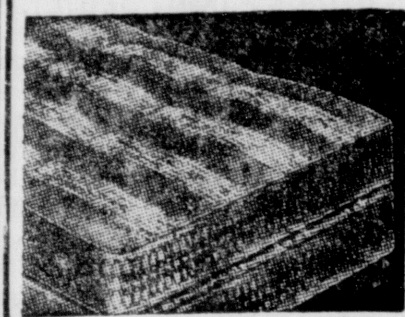

"They ate Wednesday night," she explained.

The condition of the children became known when a friend of the Schrams, who had agreed to take care of Terry, became concerned over the child's thin appearance.

Khrushchev Has An Air of Confidence

Secretary of State Dulles might well have chuckled on his sickbed in reading account of British Prime Minister Macmillan's chilling encounter with Russian diplomacy on the Berlin issue.

"Now, my friend, you know what I've been up against," he might have mused. If Macmillan has been designated by the Western powers to be a stand-in for Secretary Dulles, the Briton now knows what a frustrating experience it is to bear the chief responsibility. Moscow dispatches suggested he was shocked when Premier Khrushchev, after several days of diplomatic back-slapping, made a slashing attack on the Western position regarding Berlin.

The fact too plain to be concealed is Khrushchev's air of confidence about his ultimatum that Western occupation of West Berlin must cease when Russian occupation of East Berlin ceases on May 27. As far as anyone can see, the Russian premier holds the high hand in this game of diplomatic freezeout.

What he knows—that every Russian diplomat knows—is that the Western Powers have no intention of going to war over the issue of who stays in Berlin and how long. The Soviet Union has no intention of going to war, either. But if it came to a military showdown, the advantage would lie with the Russian army, which controls all the area surrounding Berlin. Khrushchev knows that. Secretary Dulles knows it. Prime Minister Macmillan knows it. The West Germans know it.

THE WESTERN ALLIES prolonged a problem about the occupation of Berlin because they did not know how to solve it. They let the initiative fall into the hands of Premier Khrushchev, who did what he could have been expected to do with such a valuable diplomatic windfall. He exploited it for all it was worth. He used it to test the composure and cooperation of the Western Powers.

It is not necessary to admire Khrushchev or to agree with him to recognize that in this particular situation he has the edge on his diplomatic counterparts. He can do and say anything he chooses to do and say because he speaks for only one government, while Allied spokesmen must represent the United States, Britain and France directly and, indirectly, the United Nations, to which they will be forced to appeal if Russia forces them to a showdown on Berlin.

Small wonder that Prime Minister Macmillan went into a state of shock when he learned how audacious his host in Moscow dared to be. For once in the postwar years, no one is under the illusion that the Soviet Union is diplomatically outnumbered and can be outmaneuvered. Everything it does relative to Berlin reveals anew that it is confident of its strength whereas the Western Allies are conscious of their weakness.

They have made powerful examples of their way of life in West Berlin, but they never overcome the weakness of the military compromise that put them there, surrounded by the Russian army on all sides.

Sometimes a Fellow Wonders

It's too late to do anything about it now, but what a lucky break it was for tax collectors when internal combustion engines were made.

If the revenue experts had studied all their lives and been backed up by a joint congressional investigation they could have found nothing handier than a gas pump dispensing fuel by the gallon, with the tax collected on each gallon.

Sometimes a fellow wonders how it's going to turn out, though, if the tax goes up so far that motorists make mileage per gallon go up, too, which is what everybody's insisting

The 'Gifted' Student

Supt. of Schools E. S. Kerr's disclosure to Rotary Club members that more consideration is to be given to "gifted" or above-average students is encouraging.

Where the local teaching staff is capable and willing, he said, these rapid learners are being encouraged to do special research above and beyond their regular studies and to make special reports. It is entirely possible that a special class may be organized at a future date. Recognition of these "gifted" students is a challenge they undoubtedly will accept and profit by.

Attention to bright, ambitious students is in line with the recent recommendation of Dr. James Bryant Conant, president emeritus of Harvard University, who recommended extra opportunities for these students after he had completed a two-year study of high schools.

Get Well, Dutch

The postscript on a "get well" card to State Representative Clarence Wetzel at City Hospital might read "didn't know you were in the hospital. What happened?"

When two measures were submitted in absentia by Mr. Wetzel before the state legislature Wednesday, reporters found out that Dutch had entered the hospital here Feb. 19 for an emergency appendectomy with "do not publish" written on his hospital admission card.

Mr. Wetzel has a habit of finding a bed at City Hospital without letting his constituents know where he is. Three times now. As an elected state official he should want the voters to know whether he is on the job or, through on fault of his own, temporarily incapacitated.

Once Over

Horse-betting windows in the New York subways are proposed by chairman of the Transit Authority. (You mean life in the subway is not tough enough already!) The complaint, "He got a bad ride," may apply to either a subway passenger or a horse. And "The bum ain't trying today" can be hurled at a slow subway motorman or a slow skinner.

There are 286 underground and 217 open air subway stations in Greater New York and if legislation for city-operated betting rooms is passed, it is proposed that betting windows be installed in them, with the subway financial problem helped through a cut in the "take" or use of a special horse-betting "token." Who ever expected to see the day when a horse would be called on to haul a subway system out of a hole?

Reaction of horse players is problematical. Some who haven't had a winner in years of outdoor betting may be glad to try it underground in bad air. Ultimately there may be the horse fan who will go miles to the East Side subway because all his West Side selections ran out of the money. A subway horse player could turn out to be a particularly rugged type. Accustomed to taking a beating he would have persistence.

IN THE STREET CORNER horse parlors a man might find it hard to tear himself away after one bet. But subway better could count on being jostled away, shoved into an express and carried to Flatbush before he on right now. The collectors are tempting the point of no return. Manufacturers are squeezing more distance out of gasoline — and that is the primary reason for the popularity of smaller cars.

Then there was a story in The Wall Street Journal the other day about a new electric car. A new electric car? Old ladies used to drive them, away back when. They were high-up baby buggies with tillers and nothing before or since has been koshier than a dowager in an electric with bud vases, filled with fresh-cut rose buds.

Though there has been no story about it recently, there also was the steamer. Every automotive buff knows about steamers. They came to grief because of problems with the boiler, which was far from fool-proof. But today an atomic submarine, which is nothing but a steamer that hisses along under water, can go round the world and again and again until everybody wants it to quit.

An electric, of course, would fall into the domain of the taxpayers because the idea of the new one is to recharge its batteries with an extension cord. The taxpayers would get at it through the electric company. But how would they get at the steamer, other than selling it a license tag and its operator a license?

There would be no pump, no meter, no turnstile, no horsepower rating, no anything. Just all that potentiality waiting to be hot-tented up and turned loose. They used to say no one ever had opened up one of the things all the way, which may be so.

Sometimes a fellow wonders about that too.

Everyone Benefits

Although wholly unfounded in truth and fact, it is not uncommon to hear a remark made occasionally that existing industries do not want new plants established in Salem. And it is because of such illogical statements that the Salem Manufacturers Association, at its annual meeting Wednesday, reaffirmed a stand it took several years ago encouraging a constant drive for new industries and pledging the association's help to civic committees working toward that goal.

It is not unusual to find local factories co-operating on production problems for the mutual benefit of all. Such a harmonious relationship has existed among Salem's varied industries and probably always will. Nevertheless, it was good that the Manufacturers Association called the public's attention to its previously adopted resolution.

Terrible prospect is that of a horse player being battered both by people and horses. We look for real trouble when a fan pulls the emergency cord with a cry of "Let me off! I got a sudden hunch on a longshot."

ARTHUR GODFREY is slated to replace Ed Morrow on "Person to Person." The "Redhead" has discovered you never can tell what may happen when you change your format. Arthur began interviews a few months ago as a stunt, just for laughs and, through his informal, breezy touch, made a hit in a new zone.

Part of an old cemetery in Newark, N. Y., is to be turned into a parking lot, a judge permitting it with the ruling "Respect for the dead does not require burial grounds to be hallowed forever. If that were so, the dead would in time crowd the living off the earth." (Here's hoping hizzoner, when he goes to his reward, will take it calmly if he finds a couple of autoists arguing over rights to the space directly above him. And that there will be no epitaph: "Here lies a jurist of New Joisey; He rests amid the parking noises.")

Gertrude Berg, matchless Jewish actress, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, famed British actor, a Tokyo background and a Brooklyn mood are blended in a new Broadway comedy "A Majority of One." This is the trick of the decade. The show is a hit as a sort of "Abe's Rish Rose" in kimona.

Oil in Troubled Waters

By RAYMOND MOLEY

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. The hottest subject of concern in the three big oil producing states of Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma is the forthcoming battle in Congress over the depletion allowance in computing taxes on oil producers. Bills have been introduced by Sen. John J. Williams and by Rep. T. H. MacDonald to cut the allowance from its present 27 1/2 per cent to 15 per cent.

The subject has been a perennial bone of contention in Congress for two decades. Now, with the Northern liberals stronger than ever, the pressure for a revision will be much greater. This allowance amounts to permission for an oil producer to exempt a part of his income from federal taxes. The deduction is 27 1/2 per cent unless this would amount to more than 50 per cent of the producer's net income. It was put into the law in this form in 1926. IN GENERAL, the purpose of the allowance was to encourage the independent producer to gamble his capital on drilling, which in recent years has become more risky. Also, new fields become more difficult to exploit because it is necessary to drill deeper.

The allowance is attacked for the most part as a big tax loophole which enables the gathering of huge returns and large fortunes. And so it might look to the individual who has not studied the circumstances involved in the oil business.

It is claimed by the proponents of reduction that, in the last analysis, everyone who starts a new business takes risks, and that for every one who is successful, considerably more fail.

Teddy and Gifford

By TRUMAN TWILL

All day, while I was pruning the shrubbery, I kept thinking about the time my roommate sent away for the clippers and the barber shears.

He had figured out that he could pay for these tools with his outlay for a year's worth of haircuts and thereafter would be getting his barbering for nothing.

The catch was that he and I had to learn to give each other presentable haircuts. He tried his skill on me first; it was easy. My hair was light in color and light in texture. It was also light in content, because even then I was beginning to shed. Mistakes in hair-cutting didn't show until the inspector got up close.

But my roommate's hair was black and stiff as porcupine quills. Every single hair had to be considered separately, because every hair showed up separately.

I started to switch from the skin line to the fuzz line at the regular place, a few inches above the collar. When the effect turned out to be like a flash fire that had burned off everything that protruded beneath the edge of a butter crock, I moved up a little to try again.

When I finally threw in the sissors, I had his hairline-up to the top of his head. The effect was like a scalp knot on an early American Indian.

There was nothing to do but go to the campus barber and get what passed in these days for a convict haircut. My roommate said old John was tactful; he must have seen the results of many a do-it-yourself haircutting project in his time.

The shrubbery at our place had not been barbered recently. Some of it never had been barbered at all. That would be about years of unregulated, uninhibited growth.

The trick in such cases, as every shrubbery trimmer knows, is to take off enough without taking off too much. The effect should be between a free military haircut and a trim job in a barbershop where they don't ask if you want it with tonic but ask which kind.

Time after time, it turned out the same way. One thing led to another until the only way out of the dilemma was to go all the way to the ground and hope nature would be kind — and quick.

The News invites letters from its readers on all important current topics, but the letters should be brief, not to exceed 200 words and they must bear the signature and address of the writer to insure publication. Unsigned letters can not be published.

I was reading an article subsequently about the way to prune shrubbery and the fellow suggested the easiest way is to keep snipping away at it all the time, instead of doing the whole thing at once. I think he has a good idea. It might have worked with my roommate.

We made our mistake by tackling too much at once. When panic set in, we went from bad to worse, then to the barbershop.

If I had snipped off a little of his hair each day, no one would have known what was happening. They might have been puzzled by alternations in his appearance, but no one would have concluded he had fallen among unfriendly natives and been scalped.

When they see my shrubbery they're going to think the lumber barons cleaned out the place to spite Teddy Roosevelt and Gifford Pinchot — and if anyone wonders how they got into this these two were among the foremost fighters of the lumber barons, who were ruthless fellows that cut down everything they could sell and broke down everything else in the rush to finish the job.

One federal official in the war years made the silly remark that "the wells that are going to be dry should not be drilled."

Space in this article prevents a lengthy discussion of the arguments in favor of the depletion allowance. But it is pointed out in defense of the allowance that it is not unlike the depreciation allowed the owner of a piece of machinery, except that this one represents a depreciation of capital. For the independent producer must lose so much money in drilling unproductive wells—far outnumbering productive ones—that in order to keep in the business he must do well financially when he strikes a good well.

Moreover, the activity of these independents and "wildcaters" is important to the big companies because they are in a sense the scouting agents, the people who go ahead of the big companies and discover new fields which are later worked by the major concerns. Consequently, all oil producers, big and little, are united on the issue.

THE POLITICAL, potential in Congress favoring the depletion allowance is not just the representatives of the oil-producing states. For depletion allowances are given for producers of other minerals, including sulphur, uranium and a range of metal ores down to sand and clay.

The percentages allowed in these cases are less than 27 1/2 per cent but are substantial. Hence, representatives from the states with such resources are likely to agree with those from the oil states.

The strong leadership of Senate Leader Lyndon Johnson and Speaker Sam Rayburn will be taxed to the utmost in this coming battle in Congress.

It seems to be taken for granted in Texas that its senior senator is a strong possibility for the Democratic nomination in 1960. He has already attained something of the stature of compromiser that Henry Clay attained more than a century ago.

His capacity for compromise, as well as his parliamentary skill, was shown in the closure fight. This will be an even greater test.

Proxmire on Bossism

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Wisconsin Democrat Has Exposed Weakness

Senator Proxmire, D-Wis., should be hailed as a hero. He has courageously put his finger on the reason why congressional government has been deteriorating.

Instead, he is being treated by some of his colleagues in the Senate with a mixture of disdain and cynicism. Others secretly agree but do not concur openly with his defiance of the present system, which permits a role of bossism and dictatorship by an elected leader of the party.

What the Wisconsin senator has opened up to criticism at last, after many years of indifference by the public, is a situation in the Senate where "leadership" has been interpreted to mean one-man control over what legislation shall reach the floor.

While Mr. Proxmire calls for the resumption of the party "caucus" or conference, he does not say that an individual senator must forsake his conscience in voting the party line.

HE DOES SAY that there should be frequent party conferences in which senators may express themselves and endeavor to influence their colleagues.

"There has never been a time," said Sen. Proxmire in his speech to the Senate this week, "when power has been as sharply concentrated as it is today in the Senate. In January 1958 senators assembled and listened to the majority leader read a speech which he had previously released to the press in full. There was not a single matter of party business discussed. There wasn't even a mention of party program, not a whisper concerning any legislation. There was no provision on the agenda for such discussion."

"The next meeting of the Senate Democratic caucus was a full year later. It took place just last month. Again the meeting was convened by the majority leader, who delivered another speech on the state of the nation. This speech, too, had been released beforehand to the press. The only business of the entire caucus had taken less than two and a half minutes. And senators had to surrender for another year their right and duty to determine the Democratic party's policies and program."

SEN. PROXMIRE pointed out also that the majority leader exercises his greatest power in determining what legislation shall be considered. Mr. Proxmire said: "It is my objective to obtain for the individual senator the opportunity to have an effective voice in the making of extremely important, vital decisions that occur before legislation can reach the floor of the Senate for action, and to have a voice also in determining what legislation shall reach the floor for a vote."

The Wisconsin senator mentioned also that Majority Leader Johnson of Texas has been "more extravagantly and widely praised by his colleagues and the press throughout this country than any other leader who has graced this body."

Mr. Proxmire said that, in a later speech, he is going to "discuss the full implications of this leadership and the power it has generated" and that what he really is calling for is "a greater degree of democracy in our party in the Senate."

There was a time in American history when the "caucus" was of prime importance in determining party policy.

In the Reconstruction Period, the Republicans did all their arguing in secret caucus, and when a vote was taken, the minority were bound to support, by their votes in the Senate itself, the action recorded in the caucus. Some of the most vital portions of the debate on the 14th Amendment, for instance, were lost to history because of the secrecy of those caucus meetings.

MR. PROXMIRE is not arguing for a caucus of that kind. He is urging that senators meet together, discuss the party program together and then decide individually whether they will later support in the Senate the proposed legislation as conforming or not conforming to the party platform.

Much of the difficulty which has arisen in the last four years is due to divided government—the Democrats in control of both houses of Congress and the Republicans in charge of the executive branch.

If here were in the White House

a president of the same party that controls Congress, the majority leader would have to bow to the wishes of the president.

Again and again the frustrations of present-day government are being pointed up. There is no fixed responsibility upon either political party today such as the peoples of the British Commonwealths enjoy in their parliamentary system.

This has gone to such an extreme that a Democratic senator has found it necessary to take the risks of possible reprisals in committee assignments in the future as he lays bare what appears to be a dictatorial way of conducting the legislative affairs of the majority party today.

Anti-Inflation Pitches

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—This will be a passionate year for economists: a wide open chance to argue trends and theories. This can cause severe headaches among non-economists, including politicians, who get fogbound in statistics.

Both Democrats and Republicans are making a big anti-inflation pitch.

A joint congressional committee and two committees appointed by President Eisenhower will study the American economy in 1959 to find out how this country can be kept prosperous and made more so.

Since the Eisenhower groups may come up with one set of ideas and the congressional group—composed of 10 Democrats and six Republicans—may come up with others, there will probably be more than one answer.

Nevertheless the congressional inquiry may prove more far-ranging than anything of its kind since the big one made in the 1930s by the temporary National Economic Committee headed by Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.).

Eisenhower set up: 1. A committee—headed by Raymond J. Saulnier, chairman of his Economic Advisory Council — to study all government activities affecting prices and costs. Its members will be representatives of big government agencies.

2. A seven-man Cabinet committee—headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon—to study and recommend government and private policies influencing costs and prices. Where the Nixon and Saulnier groups will and won't overlap is not clear.

But the Democrats were not to be outdone. While Eisenhower created these committees in January, last December Lyndon Johnson of Texas, leader of the Senate Democrats, had called for a big study of the nation's economic system.

Last week Johnson called on

Guarding Your Health

By Dr. EDWIN P. JORDAN

Questions and Answers

Many people, at one time of life or another, become greatly troubled by noticing what they believe to be an irregularity in the heart-beat.

Q — I am 72 and my heart skips beats quite often. Would you discuss this please?

A — The most likely explanation for this sensation is what is known as "extra systoles." Here the heart makes an extra beat followed by a pause.

The cause of this condition is somewhat obscure. In some people it seems to be related to heavy smoking and possibly other circumstances of life. It does not affect the general health and may clear up of itself after a time.

However, a word of caution is indicated since there are other kinds of irregular heartbeat which may require special treatment. So anyone who notices such a symptom should be examined and probably have a test known as an electrocardiogram.

Q — Since my wife had her left breast removed for cancer I have become curious as to what makes cancer occur. Is it something we eat? Can you, or any doctor, tell her where it comes from?

A — It is probably not the result of something in the diet. But no one can yet tell exactly what makes cancer appear.

There is much research work going on in this field and ultimately we should know whether cancer is primarily the result of an hereditary tendency, a virus or some other, possibly chemical, reaction.

Q — Please say something about a fatty tumor. I have had one under my left breast for at least eight years. The doctor told me that I should not have it removed unless it bothers me.

A — A fatty tumor, or lipoma, is common and not malignant. It seems to me that you had excellent advice and that there is no necessity to remove this tumor unless it grows rapidly or bothers you in some other way.

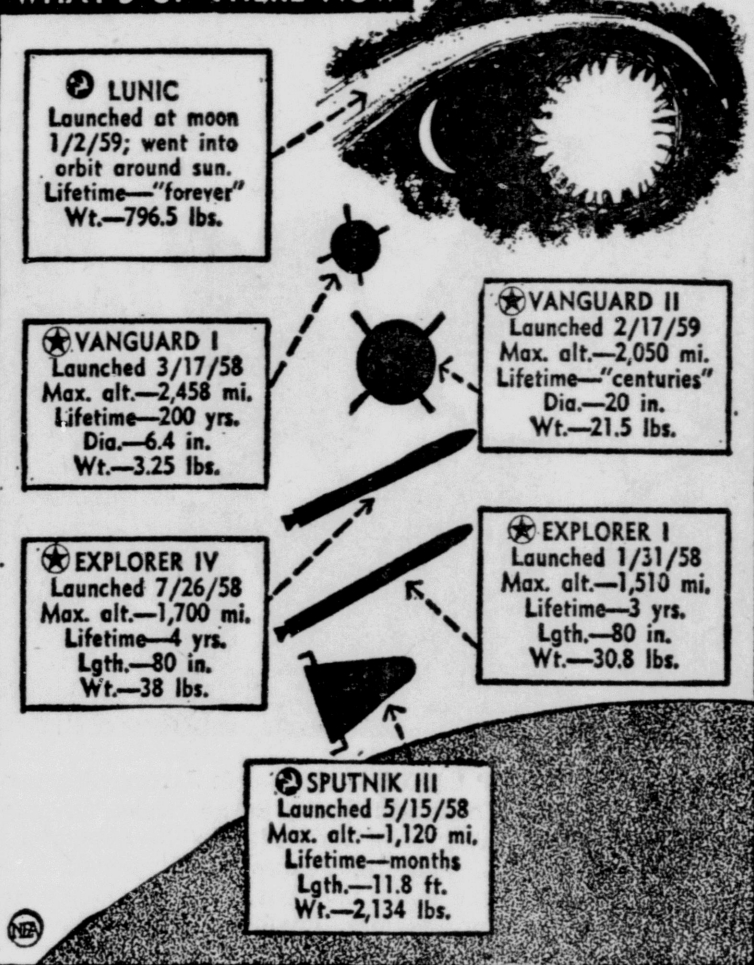

Q — My husband has had a slow pulse for several months and recently, a fairly high blood pressure. He has been told that this is caused by a heart block. Do you agree?

A — It is quite possible that the slow pulse is the result of a heart block. This means that certain electrical impulses which normally pass through the heart are blocked at some point so that the heart does not contract as frequently as it should normally. This condition does require observation, though treatment of it is not particularly satisfactory.

It is questionable whether the high blood pressure is the result of the heart block. It is perhaps more likely that both are related to hardening of the arteries.

HEARING IS POSTPONED

LISBON — The hearing on a traffic charge against William Frankford of 235 Sherman St., which had been scheduled for last night before Mayor John Todd, will be held Thursday at 7 p.m.

The hearing was postponed because Frankford's attorney was unable to be present.

Frankford was cited last Friday for violating a village ordinance which bans trucks from streets not sections of state highways. Conviction carries a maximum fine of $25.

The fire alarm was turned in by a passerby who noticed smoke pouring from the house.

Firemen got the blaze under control at 2:05 a.m.

Police re-routed traffic along W. Pershing St. during the two hours the firemen were fighting the fire.

Two Are Sentenced on Probation Violations

LISBON — Two East Liverpool men were sentenced to the Ohio State reformatory Thursday and a Salem man was given another chance, after they had been cited for violation of their probation by Adult Probation Officer Richard Rose.

Robert E. Beighey, 31, of 517 Sugar St. was sentenced to one to 20 years for auto theft. He was placed on five-years probation for this charge on June 18, 1957.

Richard D. Wolfe, 26, of 117 Market St. was sentenced to one to 15 years on a charge of burglary. He pleaded guilty to burglary in night season of the J. L. Smith store in East Liverpool, June 24, 1955, and received 5 years probation in March of 1956.

Donald House, 30, of Wilson St., Salem, was given continued probation. He had pleaded guilty to burglary of the Weikart Coal Company near Washingtonville and was given probation Jan. 17, 1956.

Salisbury is the capital of both this self-governing territory and the Central African Federation Rhodesia and Nyasaland.

Southern Rhodesia Prime Minister Sir Edgar Whitehead said he proclaimed the emergency to save the federation—a member of the British Commonwealth—from extreme nationalism which, he said, "would be fatal." His aim obviously was to round up nationalist leaders.

The agitation, which has been simmering since the British set up the federation six years ago, flared into the open over last weekend with five days of rioting. Three natives were killed and more than 50 injured.

Reports from Nyasaland said the violence had subsided with the arrival there of crack British-led African troops rushed from Salisbury by the Central Federation government.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.), assistant majority leader of the Senate, asked for a full public discussion that is understood by the people "if they are asked to give their lives, as well they may be."

But three Republican senators—Hugh Scott (Pa.), Kenneth B. Keating (NY) and Winston L. Prouty (Vt.)—said after a conference with President Eisenhower they got the impression "the government is prepared to meet any situation." They declined to elaborate.

Election Board

tion amounts to extension of the "economy" personnel plan into nine more precincts.

Precincts normally are staffed by three Republicans and three Democrats. In places where a smaller staff is used, there will be two Democrats and two Republicans.

To Try Voting Machines

In other business, the election board pushed ahead with arrangements for the voting machine trial.

It conferred with spokesmen for the Shoup Voting Machine Co. of Canton, which will furnish the machines on a rental basis, and the Dodge Publishing Co. of Salem, which holds a contract for furnishing ballots.

The board made arrangements with the printing concern to furnish ballot labels — listing candidates and offices — for use on the voting machines. The concern also will provide the so-called "authority to vote" cards which are used in voting machine precincts.

After a voter signs the poll list, he receives an "authority to vote" card. After voting, he surrenders the card under a system that prevents "repeaters" at the polls.

Clerk Frank R. O'Hanlon said the board expects delivery of demonstration machines by April 1. To familiarize voters with their operation, the machines will be placed in the courthouse at Lisbon and the old City Hall at East Palestine.

Schools of instruction are being planned for judges and clerks who will man the polling places in East Palestine and Lisbon, O'Hanlon added.

ONE FINED, ONE FORFEIT

LISBON — One motorist was fined for speeding by Mayor John Todd Thursday, and another forfeited a bond when he failed to appear for a hearing on an identical charge.

James L. Robinson, 40, of Lisbon was fined $10 and costs and Gene R. Thomas, 35, of Fairmont, W. Va., forfeited $15. Both were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

BODY IDENTIFIED

CLEVELAND (AP)—A woman whose burned body was found Feb. 15 in a dump here has been identified through fingerprints as Miss Eleanor Piowski, 33, Cleveland. Police said she apparently stumbled into the dump and was burned by a fire in the rubbish. There were no marks of violence on the body, they said.

Alliance Girl Sets 2 Fires In Suicide Try

ALLIANCE — A 17-year-old girl Thursday admitted starting two fires in Alliance High School in an effort to commit suicide.

The girl, a sophomore, told Alliance City Fire Inspector C. C. Davison that she used three matches to set blazes in waste containers in two of the girls' rooms in the school, Michael J. Melillo, state arson inspector who questioned her, said.

The girl, who lives with her divorced mother, reportedly told authorities that she hoped to be asphyxiated by the smoke, but in each instance her fires were discovered by other girls who raised alarms.

The blazes were set at mid-morning. The girl, described as neat and bright, was despondent due to a disagreement with her mother over a boy friend, Davison reported.

Alliance juvenile authorities sent the girl to the Stark County Detention Home in Canton for psychiatric tests.

1,180 Receive Jobless Benefits Weekly Here

An average of 1,180 people received unemployment benefit checks each week during January, Arthur Johnson, manager of the Ohio Employment Service office, reported today.

Johnson said his office paid out a total of $194,924 in checks during January, a figure considerably higher than the monthly average in 1958.

He said the figure was high partly because of the bad weather which hindered construction, forcing building firms in the area to lay off workers.

Johnson said an average of 1,500 people a week have been seeking benefits this year.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

There was some mighty rough deriding of each other by Walter Reuther and George Meany in the second battle of San Juan Hill—a labor war that some insiders believe will again split the AFL and CIO into two feuding outfits.

From behind the scenes of labor's high command sessions in Puerto Rico come reports that the "angry young man," Walter Reuther, has decided to challenge the policy making powers of Mr. Labor himself, George Meany, official leader of 3 1/2 million AFL-CIO members.

The subdued bitterness between America's two most influential labor chiefs flared and exploded like sun spots in Meany's Hotel Caribe Hilton from on the night of Feb. 16. Here's a blow-by-blow description of the feud's blast-off into a conflict which later lined the younger CIO leaders in one bloc against the elders of the old AFL.

On Monday night in the blunt jargon of New Yorkers, Meany asked Reuther, who is more the rapier type, just what the hell he meant by discussing the organization of a task force to run a labor march on Washington without first consulting with him. Meany also wanted to know why Reuther started discussions without waiting for the AFL-CIO president to arrive in Puerto Rico.

THAT ACRID HOUR heated the room to the point where the long thick glass wall sheer melted. Reuther left in a fury to talk strategy with his old CIO colleagues. It is absolute fact that word spread in the highest most responsible circles that there might not be a united AFL-CIO Executive Council session the next morning.

There was. Meany eased off after a night's sleep. He apologized to Reuther the next morning. Reuther rejected the apology. The brawl was on again. Some of the verbiage would never have been permitted in Boston or even in Menckens' "American Language."

The next day Meany met the CIO leaders in a bloc. They talked frankly about their right to take positions and to act without consulting him. Meany, who can move like a trip hammer, attempted to soothe the men who had led some four million workers from the mass industries into a partnership with the AFL a little more than three years ago. There was outward peace.

But only the naive will see this as anything but the calm before the labor storm. The differences between George Meany and Walter Reuther are and have been literally global.

IT WAS LOGICAL that the open fight should come now in the second year of what the scientists call the Spatial Age. We can't talk of building roads and a farm on the moon or hear reports that the Russians are about to put a man in orbit around the earth without realizing that U.S. industry is going Spatial too.

It's the era of the missile men, not the era of the masses of semi-skilled assembly-line men. The "operational" workers are growing fewer. That means Reuther's Auto Union and other old CIO units are losing members permanently.

As the semi-skilled workers are replaced by the installation and maintenance crews needed by the new machine-brain factories, the skilled trades—the crafts—grow stronger.

They are the opponents of Reuther inside labor. They are the old AFL unions.

Of course, Reuther has recognized this. On Feb. 13—just three days before he battled Meany—Reuther dispatched a very significant "Administrative Letter" to all Auto Union locals. It revealed that the Auto Workers Executive Board was revamping its special skilled workers division inside the union.

SAFE DRIVING TIP

Rush hour driving requires extra patience as well as skill.

Rush hour crowds, boarding and unloading, force bus drivers to use leoprog tactics in many cities. Resulting turnouts, says the Chicago Motor Club, cause jams among passenger car traffic moving in the center lanes.

The motorist faced with a quick decision either may yield gracefully to the bus or crowd into the next lane and attempt to maintain his pace. This crowding could cause an accident. Good drivers avoid taking advantage of other motorists.

United Local Edges Leetonia 48-42 in Tourney Tilt

Ravenna Squad Next for Eagles

Summer Tallies 18; Radler Leads Bears

By HARRY SAVAGE

United Local used their superior height to good advantage Thursday evening, and dumped a fighting Leetonia quintet 48-42 in the Class 'A' sectional tournament at Canton City Auditorium. The victory advanced Bob Penrod's ball club into the finals of the upper bracket where they will tangle with Ravenna Township, Saturday evening at 7 p.m. in Canton, to determine which team will be represented in the District. Ravenna entered the semi's by edging Boston Township 54-48 in an overtime contest immediately preceding the Leetonia-United contest.

For the Golden Eagles, it was the 18th victory of the season against a mere three defeats. Len Batcha's Bears ended the year with a 3-16 mark, but four of the Leetonia starters will return for the 1959-60 season.

The United Local board combination of 6-5 Frank Shagnot, 6-2 Gary Lindesmith and 6-0, 225 lb. Jim Summer was more than the scrappy Bears could handle. Gene Leffler and Lee Radler supplied the rebounding punch for Leetonia, but this duo had to give away inches and pounds to its opponents.

Summer led the scoring for the rampaging Eagles with 18 points. The burly forward was the only United player in double figures, but Shagnot hit eight, Lindesmith and Jim Pike tallied seven apiece and Les Blanchard was good for six. Leetonia featured a two-man attack built around Radler and Chuck Lippiatt. Radler was high with 15 and the speedy Lippiatt canned 14 (10 in the final period).

TONIGHT AT 7 P.M. Columbiana will meet the Beach City Pirates in a quarter final game in the lower bracket. The Clippers have a nine and nine record while their opponents will enter the tilt with 12 wins and eight losses. In tonight's second contest, Atwater (17-3) will face Windham (9-9). The winners of these two games will meet at 8:30 p.m. Saturday to determine the other Canton entry in the District tourney.

In the Leetonia - United Local contest, the Golden Eagles started fast. Lindesmith hit a jump shot from the counter, Shagnot a pivot shot and Blanchard a free throw to give United a 5-0 lead before Radler scored on a jumper from the pivot to give the Bears their first score.

Shagnot was magnificent on defense in the first period. The rangy junior blocked five or six shots in the eight minutes and controlled both backboards for Penrod's team.

Batcha gambled for the Bears and placed Radler in the pivot slot. The crew cut junior forward quickly adjusted to the position and played a stellar game in the center position on offense.

The Bears had a bad case of the tournament "jitters" in the first eight minutes and many of their shots weren't coming close, while three or four passes went either to the wrong man or out of bounds. The Eagles, on the other hand, played a slow offense and were content with a 9-6 lead at the end of the initial stanza.

LEFFLER DROVE IN FOR A layup to narrow the margin to 9-8 at the start of the second quarter. Shagnot came back with a tip-in to make it 11-8, but a free throw by Leffler and a driving bunny by Terry Tilley tied the score at 11-11. Seconds later Tilley pushed it through a charity toss and Leetonia had their first lead at 12-11 with 5:53 remaining in the second period.

Summer counted on a tip-in to give the advantage back to the Golden Eagles. Lippiatt, however, was fouled on an attempted drive and made good on both of his free throws to give the lead back to the Bears at 14-13.

Pike tallied on a layup to give United the lead at 15-14 and Radler countered with a jumper to make it Leetonia 16, United Local 15 when the Eagles called a time out with 2:42 left in the first half. After a brief rest United came back with three straight points and, after a push shot by Tilley, hit another field goal and a free throw to leave the court at intermission with a 22-18 lead.

The third quarter was all United Local. Radler and Lippiatt gave the lead back to the Bears at 23-22, but that was his last time Leetonia was out in front. United hit six points in a row to lead 28-23 and after a Leetonia free throw the Eagles hit a fielder to stretch their margin to 30-24.

RADLER SANK A JUMP shot from the pivot to make it 30-26 with a minute remaining in the third canto, but Shagnot hit a turnaround one-hander from the pivot and Lindesmith a jump shot from the corner to give the Eagles their biggest lead, 34-26 at the end of the next-to-last period. Leetonia tried a full-court press in a vain effort to recapture the lead in the final quarter. The Bears peeked away at the United margin and managed to narrow it to 38-36 and 40-38 with a little over two minutes remaining.

Summer and Lindesmith fired the Eagles at this point with long one-handers to push the Columbiana County champs to a 44-38 lead. Leetonia called a time out with 1:51 remaining.

After the time out, the Bears shut out the Eagles from the field while scoring a pair of fielders themselves, but United made up for the field goal drought with a bevy of charity tosses to bring the final score to United Local 48, Leetonia 42.

In the first game of the evening, Ravenna Township came back from a one-point halftime deficit to knot the score at 46-46 at the end of regulation time and went on to defeat Boston Township 54-48 in an overtime thriller. The victory marked the 13th win of the season for Clair Muscaro's Bulldogs. They have lost seven. Boston ended with a mark of 11-8.

Al Lemon, a fiery 5-8 guard, paced the Ravenna attack with 19 points. Jim Liddle had 14 and Bill Thomas 10 for Muscaro's quintet. Larry Cox hit 13, Duane Whited 12 and Jim Gillette 10 to lead the scoring for Paul Padrut's Boston ball club.

Whited canned a jump shot to push Boston into an early 48-46 lead in the three-minute overtime period, but Ravenna's Jay Wiles countered with his only two-pointer of the contest to make it 48-48. Thomas pushed Ravenna out in front 50-48 with a short jump shot and a layup by Lemon and a brace free throw by Bill Jones brought the final count to Ravenna 54, Boston 48.

MSU, Indiana Meet In TV Cage Contest

By The Associated Press
Michigan State goes before regional television cameras at Indiana Saturday afternoon needing a victory to capture its first undisputed Big Ten basketball title. The Hoosiers, with a 6-6 record, will be aiming for an upset to avenge a season-opening 79-77 loss at Michigan State, restore some glitter to a slumping season and hold them in first division with a chance for second place.

The powerful Spartans are 9-2 with three games yet to play. Only one more decision will sew up the crown. They face last place Wisconsin and then Iowa in next week's finale.

Indiana has won 4 of 7 games on the road but only 2 of 5 at home. The Hoosiers have a three-game home floor losing streak.

Only three teams—Iowa (7-5) and Michigan and Illinois, each (6-5) — retain a mathematical chance of tying MSU for the title. Illinois faces its two chief rivals for second place in road action—at Iowa Saturday night and at Michigan Monday.

In other Saturday night games, Michigan is at Ohio State (5-6), Minnesota (5-6) at Purdue (6-6) and Northwestern (6-6) at Wisconsin (1-10).

Bill Rigney to Arrive In San Francisco Camp

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Manager Bill Rigney is scheduled to arrive at the San Francisco Giants spring training camp in Phoenix today.

Rigney has been recovering from injuries suffered in a recent auto accident. During his absence Coach Frank (Salty) Parker has been in charge of the workouts. Giants officials said Rigney probably would wait until next week to suit up and join the club on the field. Until then, he'll direct the team from a seat in the bleachers.

Gordon Is 'Satisfied' With Tribe Ball Club

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Manager Joe Gordon says he is pretty well satisfied with the Cleveland baseball club "just the way it stands." That was his answer when General Manager Frank Lane informed him there were indications the Indians would not be able to make a trade of importance before the season opens April 10.

Lane, touring the training camps in Florida, has found that the price of a new third baseman—particularly Hector Lopez of the Kansas City Athletics—is exorbitantly high. Lane arrives here Monday.

There were only four absentees Thursday at the Indians' first full-scale workout. Forty-two players were in uniform.

Absent were Minnie Minoso, Vic Power, Billy Moran and Rod Graber. Moran was delayed by car trouble in New Mexico and Graber was given permission to report late. No word was heard from Minoso and Power.

"I'm not concerned about Minoso and Power," Gordon said. "I don't care when they get here because they've been playing ball all winter. The rest might do 'em good."

Minerva Rips Sandy Valley 76-56

Alliance Scores 3 Free Throws In Final Seconds To Edge Past Gophers 51-48

By JIM WILLIAMS

Participants in the championship round of the Alliance sectional Class AA basketball tourney Saturday will be exactly who most observers thought they would be, although the issue in one of Thursday night's deciding games was in doubt up to the final minute.

Alliance, hard pressed all the way, by the Goshen Gophers, had to convert three free throws in the last 40 seconds of play to down the Gophers 51-48. Minerva clobbered the Sandy Valley Cardinals 76-56 in the evening's first game.

The Gophers applied a "sticky" shifting zone which harassed the Aviators throughout the contest. Goshen's Ed Daugherty and Lynn Barnett looked excellent in bottling up the Aviators' big man, 6-4 Doug Duncan.

With Daugherty and Barnett clearing the boards, ably assisted by George Wallace, the Gophers were able to work their fast-break offense well to overcome a three-point first quarter deficit and knot the score at 32 all at half time.

ALLIANCE OPENED THE scoring on a foul shot by Dave Mainwaring and a tip-in by Roy Allen to take a 3-0 lead in the first minute of play.

Daugherty and Barnett netted six points apiece in the first period on tip-ins and hook shots, but Duncan and crew picked up 16 points to make the count 16-13 at the end of that period.

The Gophers, who had shot a measly 29 per cent in the first period, looked like a different team in the second frame as they hit on 56 per cent of their shots.

Daugherty and Barnett, still leading the Gophers in the scoring parade, were joined by Chuck Brown and George Wallace.

Wallace, hitting from the side, netted four of his seven points in that canto, while Brown, looking deadly from beside the keyhole, scored all of his six points in that frame.

Goshen forged ahead 32-28 on hook shots by Wallace and Barnett with two minutes left in the canto.

Alliance knotted the score in the last minute of play on two quick goals by Byrd and Allen, and the score stood at 32 all as the teams went to the dressing rooms.

THINGS SLOWED down in the third period, as both teams started to employ a slow, "deliberate" offense. Alliance scored nine points in that period while Goshen netted seven.

Alliance jumped ahead 34-32 in the first minute and remained there except for a brief period when Goshen held a one-point lead 37-36.

Alliance employed an offense which saw no one under the basket to get the rebounds. All five men were pulled out from the foul lane around the keyhole.

Alliance held a two-point lead going into the last stanza. Duncan added six more points to his total in the third frame.

IN THE FINAL EIGHT minutes of play the teams traded baskets evenly, but Goshen got ahead by one point 46-45 midway in the period.

The Aviators held a 48-47 lead at the one-minute mark and scored on three charity tosses in the final seconds to put the game on ice.

Goshen's George Wallace picked up his fifth personal foul, and left the game with 48 seconds remaining. Alliance's Larry Reese converted to make the score 49-48.

Then Barnett fouled the Aviators' Wallace with just 15 seconds remaining. Wallace converted both tosses to wrap up the game for Alliance.

The teams were fairly well matched on shooting percentages as Alliance hit 38 per cent and the Gophers 37 per cent.

The real edge in the game came at the foul line where the Aviators converted 3 of 18 charity tosses while Goshen hit only 8 of 12 free throws.

THE GOPHERS PICKED UP 12 personals and Alliance garnered 9.

Two Gophers hit in the double figures. Barnett hit on seven field goals and four free throws to take the evening's scoring honors.

Daugherty added 14 more points to Goshen's total.

The Aviators Wallace and Duncan early tallied on five field goals and five charity tosses for 15 points. Roy Allen scored 12 points for the winners.

Minerva's high flying Lions hit on 37 per cent of their shots as they downed the Sandy Valley Cardinals in the opening game. The Cardinals scored a meager 27 per cent.

Six men hit in double figures for the Lions, with Ron Hardgrove leading the way. He scored on four field goals and eight charity tosses for 16 points.

Elio Bafale, Jim Boyd, and Mike Smith each canned 14 points for the Cardinals.

Minerva and Alliance will take up the basketball wars again Saturday night when they square off in the championship game in Alliance Stanton Junior High's Coppock gym at 8 p.m.

Quakers Battle South For Berth In Finals

Salem's Quakers will be going after their second win of the season over Youngstown South tonight when they battle the Warriors in the Youngstown Class AA section at tourney beginning at 7:30 p.m. In the nightcap, Youngstown East meets Austintown Fitch.

The two winners tonight will meet tomorrow at 9 p.m. for the right to advance into district play.

Woody Deitch, who has been somewhat hampered this week by a bad case of blisters on his feet, is expected to be in the starting lineup tonight for the Quakers.

Earlier in the week Deitch missed a morning of school because he couldn't walk. He had had blisters broken and in so doing they bled a little. Chances are he might be used sparingly against South depending on the complexion of the contest.

Salem's other starters will include the rebounding pair of Lo Slaby and Clyde Marks along with defensive stalwarts Dan Kricbaum and Dave Hunter.

Salem beat South 84-39 exactly one month ago today and will be attempting to repeat the feat tonight for the right to meet Youngstown East, an expected winner over Fitch.

Canfield nipped East Palestine 64-62 in a sudden death double overtime last night on a tip in shot by Paul Baird while Brookfield defeated Boardman 55-50.

The Canfield-Brookfield winner will advance into the Youngstown district tourney along with the winner of the Youngstown Ursuline - Youngstown Woodrow Wilson contest.

Portland, Ore. — Bobby Hicks, 134, Seattle, outpointed Teddy (Redtop) Davis, 136, Hartford, Conn., 10.

By The Associated Press
Big Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati moved closer to his second straight college basketball scoring title Thursday night. The Bearcats' star pumped in 36 points against Duquesne to boost his season's average to 33.4.

New York (Sunnyside Garden) — Jose Torres, 163, Puerto Rico, stopped Eddie Wright, 161½, Philadelphia, 5.

Althea Gibson Garners Santiago Net Victory

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Althea Gibson of New York, Wimbledon and U.S. women's tennis champion, defeated Chilean champion Carmen Ibarra 6-1, 1-6, 6-0 in an exhibition Thursday night.

The stadium was packed by 3,000 cheering fans. Hundreds waited outside.

Later Luis Ayala and Maria Tort defeated Daniel Achondo and Althea Gibson in a mixed doubles match, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4.

Bulldogs Lose 64-62 Thriller In Overtime

A tip in field goal by Canfield's Paul Baird, his only two points of the game, provided the Cardinals with a double overtime, sudden death 64-62 victory over the East Palestine Bulldogs last night in the Struthers Class AA sectional tournament.

Palestine led 18-13 at the quarter and 26-22 at the half and were even ahead 40-39 after three quarters.

Following the first overtime the tally was 62-62 after being 56-56 following the first 32 minutes.

Then with about two minutes gone in the sudden death session Baird tipped in his precious two points.

Sopkovich and Anderson each had 14 for Canfield while Blott had 16 and McPhee 10. For the losers, Knight, Bolon and Woods all had 14 each.

Canfield plays Brookfield Saturday night for a berth in the Youngstown district meet. Brookfield beat Boardman last night 55-50.

bertson, ran their winning streak to 14 Thursday night with an 88-69 pasting of a Duquesne team that had seven victories in its last nine games. Robertson fired in 36 points, upping his average to 33.4.

West Virginia, going after its fifth straight Southern Conference championship, battered Davidson 100-63 in the first round of the conference tournament at Richmond. The Mountaineers play their semifinal tonight against William & Mary, an 87-89 winner over host Richmond.

It was West Virginia's 16th triumph in its last 17 games and, coupled with Cincy's 14-game win streak, puts the pair at the peak they reached in the stretch last year only to fail in the national tournament.

George Washington, holding high-scoring Bobby Ayersman to a mere five points, upset second-seeded Virginia Tech 85-67 and Art Musselman's 36 points led the Citadel to a 93-88 victory over Furman in the other tournament games at Richmond. The latter pair play tonight, with the winner facing the West Virginia-William & Mary victor in the Saturday night final.

Utah fattened its Skyline Conference lead to a full game, beating Brigham Young 76-74 in overtime as 6-8, 240-pound Pearl Polard scored on a tip-in as the buzzer sounded. The Utes, trailing most of the way, set up the overtime on Rich Ruffell's fielder with five seconds left in regulation time that tied it at 70-70.

Three National Invitation Tournament teams were in action and two won. Oklahoma City walloped Loyola of New Orleans 92-69 and Providence beat Rhode Island 65-60, although its ace, Johnny Egan, was ill and didn't play. The third of the NIT trio — St. John's (NY) — lost to Manhattan 70-65 in overtime and its season mark dipped to 14-6. Manhattan (13-5) probably gets an NIT bid as a result.

Mantle Sets Talks With George Weiss

ST. PETERSBURG Fla. (AP) — Mickey Mantle, the New York Yankee's No. 1 power man, arrived here Thursday night and said he planned to call General Manager George Weiss for a salary conference today.

The 26-year-old centerfielder said he would sign his contract, but indicated that he and the Yankees were not far apart.

Mantle, who earned $72,000 last year, reportedly is holding out for a $30,000 raise.

Weiss, after sending Mickey a contract calling for $65,000, has agreed to boost the figure but apparently wants Mantle to agree to certain conditions before yielding to the slugger's demands for $75,000.

Mickey wants no part of any conditional contract.
